EVERY day, more than 10 Malaysians are tested positive for HIV, some of them children.

In support of these children, the Karyawan Young Artistes Bureau is organising the Karya1 Malaysia Charity Bazaar at Amcorp Mall from noon to 6pm on Aug 16.

Local celebrities will raise funds by selling their merchandise or personal items. They include bureau members Dayang Nurfaizah, Amylea Azizan, Hafiz Suip, Aizat Amdan, Dafi Ismail Sabri, Faizal Ramly, Iqwal Ismail, Stacy Anam and Angeline Wong.

Suria FM is the official radio partner for the event.

Karyawan president Freddie Fernandez said: "We are inviting the other artistes to take a booth and sell their merchandise and personal items, and donate a portion or all of their proceeds to the Malaysian AIDS Foundation."

He said the bureau supported the foundation's efforts to make a difference in the lives of children infected with HIV.

"Everyone is invited to this event. The public will get to meet their favourite local celebrities while donating toward a good cause."
