

Headline Liz Hurley braves London chill in a daring dress
Date 17 Dec 2009
MediaTitle New Straits Times
Section Life & Times
Journalist N/A
Frequency Daily
Circ / Read 139,763 / 330,000

Language English
Page No 13
Article Size 132 cm²
Color Full Color
ADValue 3,905
PRValue 11,714

Liz Hurley braves London chill in a daring dress

YOU can always guarantee a room full of wall-to-wall celebrities whenever Elton John throws a party.

The actress and her Indian textile heir husband Arun Nayar were among the guests joining Sir Elton at his recent Character & Cocktails Winter Ball at London's Grosvenor House Hotel.

Looking very glamorous in a long lilac chiffon dress and a white fur gilet, Liz couldn't help flashing her shapely pins as she arrived at the event, which raised £550,000 (RM3.025 million) for the The Elton John Aids Foundation.

Although Sir Elton may have briefly inwardly cursed that he threw his party — the winter equivalent of his White Tie and Tiara Ball — on the same night as the X Factor final, he managed to score an impressive turnout of guests.

Those that had shunned Simon Cowell et al were treated to a glamorous night of cocktails, dinner and a special performance by Grammy award-winner Kelly Rowland.
— Daily Mail

