MISSION ACCOMPLISHED

These Management and Science University (MSU) students entered the Malaysia Book of Records after breaking the record for a relay run in Shah Alam recently. The 80 MSU students ran 2,200km in 168 hours to break the record previously set by 40 secondary school students in Kunat, Sabah, in April. The SMK Kunat students had run a distance of 1,670.8km in 120 hours. The MSU AIDS Awareness Run 2009 was flagged off by MSU president Prof Datuk Mohd Shukri Abd Yajid on Dec 10. They ran 4km from their campus to Tasik Shah Alam and back, doing 980 rounds altogether. — NST picture by Munira Abd Ghani
