

Headline Events
 Date 18 Mar 2010
 MediaTitle New Straits Times
 Section Supplement
 Journalist N/A
 Frequency Daily
 Circ / Read 139,763 / 330,000

Language English
 Page No S10,S11
 Article Size 366 cm²
 Color Full Color
 ADValue 10,826
 PRValue 32,479

today

Swedish painter Federico Tomasi makes his debut in Malaysia with "e)motion" at Zinc Art Space at Lot 61, Jalan Maarof, Bangsar. See his trademark technique in the 24 canvasses depicting human emotions at their rawest and most primal. The exhibition ends on Saturday.

friday

Sir Tom Jones will serenade his fans at Plenary Hall, KLCC tonight at 8pm. The music icon will perform songs from his latest album 24 Hours and hits from five decades including She's A Lady, Delilah and I'll Never Fall In Love Again.

Today is the deadline to register for the Seas Flexicare Basic Joint Care exercise demonstration to be held on March 28 at The Atria Shopping Centre, Damansara Jaya. For details, call Wee at 012-330 8466 or Nancy at 016-288 1829.

saturday

The largest boy band in the world, Super Junior, performs at Putra Indoor Stadium, Bukit Jalil, at 7pm. The "Super Show 2 Live in Malaysia 2010" is part of the Koreans' second Asia tour.

sunday

MyRAWK, an independent group Liverpool FC supporters, will gather at The Library, e@Curve to watch the Liverpool vs Manchester United match at 8.30pm. For details, email info@my-rawk.com

monday

Fans of Seven Collar T-shirt can catch the band in "The Battle Protocol Tour" at Kuala Lumpur Performing Arts Centre. The show starts at 8.30pm at Pentas 1.

tuesday

Alukomarai, a contemporary jazz band from Chiang Mai, Thailand, go under the spotlight at No Black Tie in Jalan Mesui, off Jalan Nagasari. Showtime is 9.30pm.

wednesday

"Life Sdn Bhd 5: I'm Positive" is presented at The Actors Studio in Lot 10 for three days. The stories narrated by actors and individuals focus on living with AIDS.