THE Malaysian Association for the Blind and the Malaysian AIDS Foundation each received RM7,000 from the Kuala Lumpur Hilton recently.

The funds were raised through the sales of cookies during the hotel's recent Global Week of Service.

Hilton Kuala Lumpur human resources director J. Shamala said the third installment of the annual Hilton Global Week of Service involved 4,200 properties of the hotel chain worldwide with the aim to "fill the earth with light and warmth of hospitality".

He was at the celebration of the success of the global week at level 7 of the hotel held on Tuesday.

"Three hundred hotel staff had helped sell cookies in the hotel as well as at other potential spots at RM20 each. The cookies of chocolate chips and pumpkin seeds varieties were baked over two days by the hotel pastry chefs," said

Shamala.

The pastry chefs of the Kuala Lumpur Hilton had kicked off the Global Week of Service with a masterchef baking class for the students of Montford Boys Town in Shah Alam, said Shamala.

Present was Kuala Lumpur Hilton general manager Jamie Mead.

The hotel also held an education and awareness talk on how to help the blind in time of need as well as on AIDS and its prevention.
