

Headline DiGi donates RM150,000 to charitable organisations
Date 17 Aug 2009
MediaTitle Borneo Post
Section Business
Journalist N/A
Frequency Daily (EM)
ADValue 518

Language
Page No
Article Size
Color
PRValue

English
B11
90 cm²
Black/white
1,555

DiGi donates RM150,000 to charitable organisations

SHAH ALAM: DiGi Telecommunications Sdn Bhd (DiGi) donated a total of RM150,000 to 14 charitable organisations under Love to Save campaign.

The month-long campaign saw DiGi making a pledge to donate the funds with the public deciding the amount each charity receives.

Members of the public were invited to www.lovetosave.com.my to make their choice.

The campaign attracted 86,615 visits with 589 personal groups created.

The 14 recipients were Borneo Conservation Trust (RM6,280), SPCA Selangor (RM19,235), Malaysian Nature Society (RM11,920), Global Environment Centre (RM9,625), Hospis Malaysia (RM7,100), IJN Foundation (RM12,540), MAKNA (Majlis Kanser Nasional): RM19,980, Malaysian AIDS Foundation (RM7,620), National Kidney Foundation (RM10,055), HOPE worldwide KL (RM15,065), Malaysian Council for Child Welfare (RM7,635), National Council for the Blind Malaysia (RM7,280), National Council of Senior Citizens Organisations (NACSCOM): RM5,620, and Women's Aid Organisation (WAO): RM10,045.