Less fortunate get new clothes

IN conjunction with the upcoming Hari Raya Aidilfitri, members of Persatuan Usahawan Graduan Malaysia (PUGM) brought 150 orphans and children who are suffering from HIV/AIDS from around the Klang Valley shopping for new clothes.

PUGM president Muzamir Mustafa said she was glad to share the joy of the festivities with the less fortunate children. PUGM allocated RM100 for each child to choose their new clothes. They went shopping at Jusco in South Cheras last Sunday.

PUGM hoped to involve more charitable homes in the future to take part in such activities. — Harian Metro
