SANDAKAN: Kabul Enterprise Company (Sandakan) contributed RM3,000 to the Sabah AIDS Support Group (SAGA) during a charity dinner at Sabah Hotel here on Friday.

The cheque was presented by owner of Kabul Enterprise Company Said Bashar Shah Zadar to the chairperson of SAGA, Dr Zaiton Yahya.

"The contribution showed that our company is concerned towards the needy, such as AIDS patients," he said, adding that it was their first time to be involved in such a charity programme and had chosen to contribute to SAGA.

"I hope our contribution could help the organization to organize more programmes which are beneficial to their members," he added.

SAGA was established to create awareness about HIV and AIDS, besides helping to curb the disease among the public.

Other donors were Harmoni Car Wash Company, Sri Tari Sambayan Kumalah Company, and Divas Club Entertainment.
