Standard Chartered Run

The Run For A Cause programme of Standard Chartered KL Marathon 2011 raised RM486,668 from participating runners and corporations. The initiative aimed to help the less fortunate of all ages and races by providing a platform for individuals or teams to donate money to a charity of their choice by taking part in the biggest annual running event in Malaysia. The six charities participating in the programme were The National Autism Society Malaysia, Yayasan Anak Warisan Alam, Malaysian AIDS Foundation, The Malaysian Association for the Blind, National Cancer Society of Malaysia and the Standard Chartered Trust Fund.
