Lincoln Corner Talk @ Pustaka Negeri on 6 oct

KUCHING: The Lincoln Corner of Pustaka Negeri Sarawak, together with the US Embassy (Kuala Lumpur) will host a Talk Presentation on 6th October 2011, from 2.00pm to 4.30pm at the Seminar Room, Pustaka Negeri Sarawak.

The Talk Presentation titled "Peace Corps: History, Current and My Sarawak Experience" will be given by Mr Richard Harvey, a US Peace Corp Volunteer In Sarawak in 1961.

Richard Harvey will be speaking about the Peace Corps program itself, his experience being a Peace Corps Volunteer in Sarawak and the benefits of this program.

Peace Corps volunteers work at the request of other countries to help develop better opportunities for their people, living and working with people in remote villages and burgeoning cities in the developing world.

Since 1961, more than 200,000 Americans have served as volunteers in 139 countries, teaching English, helping people improve their families' health, working on HIV/AIDS issues, encouraging entrepreneurs to build their own businesses and providing leadership to the young.

While they're at it, they teach others a few things about Americans and learn a few things about other people to help Americans better understand the world.
