FOR A GOOD CAUSE

The 21st annual Cinema Against AIDS Gala raised $38 million (RM152 million) helping amfAR in its continued fight against HIV/AIDS. The star-studded black-tie event was held at the Hotel du Cap Eden Roc and was presented by Worldview Entertainment, Bold Films, and Bulgari. The evening featured a celebrity filled live auction, an all red fashion show curated by Carine Roitfeld, and performances by Robin Thicke, Lana Del Rey, Aloe Blacc and Andrea Bocelli.

AmfAR fundraising chairman Sharon Stone and longtime amfAR supporter, Harvey Weinstein, helped to lead the legendary live auction, along with the evening's official auctioneer, Simon de Pury. Bulgari ambassador and former first lady of France Carla Bruni-Sarkozy took the stage to introduce a Bulgari "Serpenti" necklace, made of white gold with a 13-ct drop shape Aquamarine and 19.2-ct of pave diamonds. The piece, a tribute to the sophisticated spirit of amfAR's late founder Dame Elizabeth Taylor, sold for RM 1.9 million. Among those who attended the event were amfAR ambassador Milla Jovovich, Heidi Klum, John Travolta, Kelly Preston, Aishwarya Rai, Carine Roitfeld, amfAR chairman Kenneth Cole, Bulgari group chief executive officer Jean-Christophe Babin, amfAR global fundraising ambassador Milutin Gatsby, Michel Litvak, Vincent Roberti, Remo Ruffini, Christopher Woodrow and Molly Connors.

Other guests in attendance, many of whom participated in the evening's auction along with the chairs, included Jessica Chastain, Bvlgari ambassador Adrien Brody, Kylie Minogue, Paz Vega, Adrian Grenier, Jon Kortajarena, Karolina Kurkova, HRH Princess of Venice Clotilde Courau, Luke Evans, Jane Fonda, Marion Cotillard, Eva Herzigova and Madame Catherine Deneuve. 📸
