COLOURS FOR A CAUSE

L'Oreal Professionnel with The Malaysian AIDS Foundation recently hosted Colour For Life Reunited, a nationwide fundraising campaign that aims to give hope and assist the children living with HIV. Organised as a fun day out for children with HIV at Sumira Place, this year's event saw a Food Art Demonstration by famous Food Artiste, Samantha Lee. There was also a Food Art Competition amongst personalities who helped bring cheer to the event, such as Professor Dato Jimmy Choo, Datin Paduka Marina Mahathir, Fahrin Ahmad, Ning Baizura and Lynn Lim. The last time Colour For Life was held was in 2013, with a two-day charity haircut drive by L'Oreal Professional partner salons. The initiative collected RM100,000 for children living or affected by HIV.
