RM25,000 raised through charity event

LOO Chee Zhen claimed a one-point victory in the inaugural FBC Charity Golf Tournament at the Kelab Rekreasi Tentera Udara (KRTU) in Subang recently.

But the biggest winners were two charity homes – Rumah Victory and Crisis Home. The tournament, organised by the First Baptist Church in Subang Jaya, attracted a total of 108 golfers.

The event was to raise funds for the two homes which cater to the aged, poor, children and people living with HIV/AIDS. A total of RM25,000 was raised for the homes.

Chee Zhen walked away as the winner after accumulating 38 points beating Chan Wan Yeon by one point. Thomas Hou finished third with 37 points on countback, followed by Lee Kok Wai in fourth place and Eugene Yip in fifth position.

The main sponsors for the event were Srixon Sports Asia, Trend Group of Companies, Yinson Corporation and Northport. Other organisations who contributed prizes for the tournament included Air Asia, Taylor-Made Adidas, Titleist Acushnet, CIMB, The Mines Resort, Saujana Golf and Country Club, Kota Permai Golf and Country Club, KRTU, Druh Belts and Crestlink.
