Aid for HIV kids

L'Oréal Malaysia managing director Jean-Francois Couve (left), L'Oréal Malaysia corporate communication and media relations director Tay Ai Leen (centre) and Malaysian AIDS Foundation adviser Datin Paduka Marina Mahathir, holding a mock cheque for RM150,000 which L'Oréal handed over to the foundation in conjunction with the group's 100th anniversary. The money will go towards the Keep In School Scheme in collaboration with the foundation to help HIV-infected children above 12 so that they can continue with their secondary education.
