Makeup brand unveils its holiday collection

GET ready for some magic, mirth and a little mischief with M.A.C.'s Holiday 09 Collection.

International makeup brand M.A.C. cosmetics recently unveiled its latest collection, themed Magic, Mirth & Mischief, for the holiday season at the Suria KLCC concourse.

The concourse area was decorated with shades of silver and pink, setting the mood for a fun-filled party, where guests mingled, played hula-hoops, and blew soap bubbles.

The highlight of the party was when four models, decked out in the M.A.C. Holiday 09 look, made their entry.

M.A.C. senior artist Yokoe Chan described the collection as the key to creating the "best party look ever".

"It's magical, playful, bubbly, full of fantasy and imagination,

"The colour is fun and suitable for any party look. Choose from turquoise, pink, lilac, silver, gold, white and earthy tones," she said.

The collection offers a complete package from eye shadow to lip colour to nail lacquer, to enable you to create the holiday party look.

However, you'll be wrong to think that the collection is only for the young and party-going.

According to Chan, the collection is for everyone regardless of age, for any occasion.

"For a day look, use the creamy lipstick instead of the dazzle gloss (lipgloss) for a matte look.

"On creating the holiday party look, the key is to have enough colour to bring out your features in a sophisticated manner.

"The focus is on the eyes and mouth. Have a light hand when applying colours as overdoing it will have an adverse and tacky effect," she said.

You can look gorgeous and do your bit for charity as well with M.A.C.'s Viva Glam range.

"There are special limited edition lipsticks and lip gloss. The proceeds will go to the M.A.C. AIDS Fund," said Chan.
