Two homes receive essential items

Company gives goods worth RM1,000 to charities

TWO charity homes each received goods worth RM1,000 of everyday essentials from Caltex recently. Noodles, tea, cooking oil, packet drinks and cleaning products were some of the items given to the residents of Rumah Nur Salam and Rumah WAKE.

"At Caltex, we're driven by a commitment to remain relevant to the community in which we live.

"This contribution of necessities is our small way of giving back to a community in need, with items that they will use and gain benefit from," said Chevron Malaysia Limited's Policy, Government and Public Affairs manager Mokhtar Ali Ismail.

According to Rumah Nur Salam operations manager Capt. Asiah Ariffin, the instant noodles, packet drinks and tea are particularly useful as the home is unable to cook for residents and students.

"As we are only able to boil water, we usually depend on the generosity of the public to feed our kids all year round," she said.

WAKE Home coordinator (Women and Health Association Kuala Lumpur) Ng Nga Tuan, said the cooking oil and the cleaning products would go a long way towards all three WAKE homes which aim to create a safehouse for abandoned children and women in the Klang Valley.

The residents of both homes include those who, in some way or another have been affected by HIV/AIDS in their lives.

HIV/AIDS awareness is a cause that Chevron, the company behind the brand Caltex has long championed.

Those interested in contributing towards Nur Salam and WAKE may contact 03-4045 4021 (Capt Asiah) and 03- 2692 6861 (Mohd Daruz) respectively.
