

Headline For a good cause
 Date 19 Aug 2010
 MediaTitle The Star
 Section StarTwo
 Journalist N/A
 Frequency Daily
 Circ / Read 304,904 / 1,026,812

Language English
 Page No T19
 Article Size 265 cm²
 Color Full Color
 ADValue 9,917
 PRValue 29,751

For a good cause

Compiled by
SHEELA CHANDRAN
 sheelac@thestar.com.my

WORLD Vision's 30-Hour Famine 2010 will be held from noon to 4pm this Sunday at Stadium Putra in Bukit Jalil, Kuala Lumpur. The event features performances by Hands Percussion, Nicholas Teo, Lee Sinje, Juwita Suwito, Francissca Peter, Fish Leong and appearances by Deborah Henry and MY fm and MIX fm deejays.

World Vision Malaysia was set up in 1997 as the supporting arm of World Vision International, a global Christian humanitarian, relief and development organisation working for the well-being of all, especially children.

Themed Light Up Their Life, this year's event aims to raise RM1mil for local and international projects, including The Street Children and Drop-In Centre projects in Myanmar and Thailand, Factory Workers' HIV/AIDS Education Project in China, and locally the Shemariah Foster Home for Children, Beautiful Gate Foundation for the Disabled and the Sin Chew Retirement Village.

Participants raise funds by pledging to go without solid food for 30 hours. For details, call ☎

03-7880 6414, e-mail 30hrfam
 ine@worldvision.com.my or browse worldvision.com.my.

■ CLASSICALLY trained Indian vocalist Bhavani Logeswaran presents an evening of enchanting Carnatic music on Sept 4 (7.30pm) at the MAS Auditorium in Kelana Jaya, Petaling Jaya, Selangor.

Logeswaran has been performing for over 12 years, both as a solo vocalist in music productions and as the lead vocalist in dance productions. She started learning the ancient fine art when she was four years old and went on to hone her talents in India.

Logeswaran is a unique singer as she has the blend of South and Hindustani classical styles. The songbird will be accompanied by violinist Sashidaran Achyuthan Nair. For invites, call ☎ 017-331 0609 (Meena Kumaree) or 012-309 6369 (Santha Nantha).

■ COMEDIANS Monti and Logi's socio-political stand-up comedy

Drink Coffee, Tell Stories, Make Money takes place tomorrow and Saturday (8.30pm) at PJ Life Arts Centre, Jaya One, Section 13 in Petaling Jaya, Selangor.

Tickets are priced at RM60. For details, call ☎ 03-7960 0439 or 012-6832 099.

■ THE Oral Stage theatre company presents Steven Berkoff's stage adaptation of Franz Kafka's Metamorphosis.

The play is about Gregor Samsa who wakes up one morning and finds himself transformed into a gigantic insect and unable to work.

Through the course of the story, the attitude of his family transforms from care to detest, as Samsa becomes a burden to them.

Leading the cast are Sabera Shaik and Lim Soon Heng. Metamorphosis will be performed from today till Sunday at Pentas 2, Kuala Lumpur Performing Arts Centre, Kuala Lumpur. Showtime is 8.30pm with 3pm matinee shows on Saturday and Sunday.

Tickets are priced at RM48 (adults) and RM24 (students, senior citizens and the physically challenged). Saturday matinee is at a flat rate of RM24. For tickets, call ☎ 03-4047 9000/7711 5000 or browse klpac.org.

Caring beauties: Former Miss Malaysia Deborah Henry (left) and award-winning actress Lee Sinje will be at 30-Hour Famine 2010.